

CMS SUMMER CAMP

“GLEE” WORKSHOP

This summer, CMS is hosting a fun vocal camp at our Encinitas studios for students ages 8-18. If you love the TV show “Glee” and have always wanted to be in a “show choir” or sing in a group environment, this is the camp for you!

Judy M., CMS vocal coach, will direct this exciting camp. Campers will learn great performance numbers that have been featured on the show “Glee”, such as “Don’t Stop Believin” by Journey, “True Colors” by Cyndi Lauper, and “Don’t Rain on My Parade” by Barbara Streisand.

In addition to learning how to sing with a group, students will also have solo opportunities and will work with a choreographer, acting coach, and singing coach. Campers will learn audition techniques and many other great tips and tricks of the performance trade, all in a fun and lighthearted environment. At the end of the week of camp, the students will perform in a special show.

Camp “Glee” will be held at CMS headquarters in Encinitas July 26th–30th from 9:30am–12:00pm daily, with a performance on July 31st at 9:30am at the Ruby Schulman Auditorium in Carlsbad. Tuition for the week and the performance is $150 per child. For more information or to register, please call our office at 800-227-6222, or feel free to email our support staff at Support@CaliforniaMusicStudios.com. Hurry, as space is limited!

About the Director

Judy M. has been a professional entertainer for over twenty years. A former cast member of America's longest running musical revue, "Beach Blanket Babylon", Judy has performed in nightclubs, cabarets and shows in San Diego, San Francisco, Los Angeles and Houston. Judy is currently the lead vocalist for the San Diego based 8 piece show band "The Fabulous Ultratones". Judy studied voice with Roland Wyatt, the vocal coach for Manhattan Transfer.

Judy specializes in training pop singers, and works intensely with her students on vocal therapy and vocal strengthening, as well as song interpretation, stage presence and microphone technique. She has taught and coached vocalists for many years. As a full time working singer, Judy understands the discipline necessary to maintain a strong and healthy voice. We are excited to offer a teacher of Judy's expertise to our “Glee” Workshop campers!

SPOTLIGHT ON CMS

CMS piano and flute instructor Shen L. has a large group of students that are accomplishing wonderful things. Laura Lovell was recently named “Most Outstanding Freshman: Music” at her school, and Roman DiMaggio was awarded an Excellent Medal in music at his school. Three of her students recently took Certificate of Merit examinations. Alex Lam passed Level 5 with honors, Allyson Chu passed Level 4 with honors and convention, and John Wills passed Level 3. Many of Shen’s students who took Assessment of Musicianship certification examinations performed very highly as well. Roman DiMaggio, Anthony Neoman, Ben Hoang and Ella Hoang passed Level 1, Jenna Dyer passed Level 2, Cassidy Nguyen, Jackie Siedel, and Emma Sheraton passed Level 3, Evie DiMaggio and Jolie Nguyen passed Level 4, and Megan Lam, Elizabeth Neoman, and Delainey Nguyen passed Level 5. Congratulations to all of you—all your dedication and hard work definitely shows!

Fresh from her successful CD release at DiPiazza’s Lava Lounge, CMS voice, guitar, and piano instructor

Francesca V. recently performed a well-received semi-acoustic concert at Hollywood’s Universal Bar and Grill on June 26th, and will also host a San Diego CD release concert in the near future.

On the topic of CD releases, Joe K., CMS violin instructor, and his band Riddle the Roar recently held their CD release party on June 25th. The event was held at the downtown art theater “Sushi Performance and Visual Art”. The event showcased the band’s distinct sound, an eclectic and original blend of music from all genres.
